

Black History Month at the Norfolk County Public Library

On Thursday, February 6th, the Norfolk County Public Library will be hosting a Black History Month celebration featuring author and historian Natasha Henry, who will speak at 1pm at the Simcoe Branch.

Presentation Focus:
John Graves Simcoe,
Chloe Cooley
& 1793 Anti-Slavery Act

Additionally, NCPL will feature documentary films at 3 Branches:

Feb. 6th: Simcoe (Seeking Salvation @3pm).

Feb. 13th: Port Dover (Black Hands @3pm)

Feb. 20th: Port Rowan (Seeking Salvation @3pm)

The Simcoe Branch will also feature the artwork of Nicole Alexander, a self-taught artist whose paintings in oil, acrylic and watercolour reflect a unique Afro-Caribbean vibe.

A sample of Nicole Alexander's work

